

Underworld

(Ball / Redlin) March 1990

Temptation and pain
That's the game
The feelings that drive you mad
Locked away so many years
The worst fear you ever had
Child from hell has arisen
To take away your breath
Demons of fear spread their wings
It's time to seal your death

Underworld
Underworld

The smell of blood hits the air
The great man of history
Black diamond of the cross
Will take away your destiny
Take away, drift away
Your destiny awaits
Now the time has come
The reaper you must face

Underworld
Underworld

(Solo)

Take a walk inside my mind
It's living hell you'll see
Hold on tight for your life
He lives inside of me
Locked away so many years
In an unknown place
One touch of my hand
You'll meet me face to face
